

Healthy Ageing

PROSMANTM

Supports Healthy Prostate

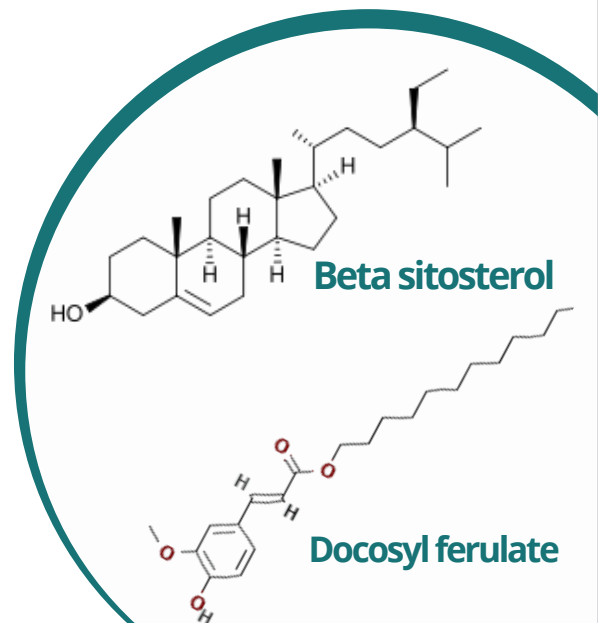

Prosman is an innovative product for management of BPH. It is derived from Prunus species and its active ingredients are known for anti-inflammatory effects.

- It is a well-researched and published ingredient supported with clinical studies
- It has been granted 7 international patents by Europe, USA, China, Japan, India and Korean patent authorities.

Suggested Dosage
100 MG/ Twice a day

Active constituents
of Prosman

CLINICALLY EVALUATED

An open-labelled, single-armed non-randomized clinical study was carried out on 140 Patients of BPH to test the efficacy and safety of PROSMAN.

	Total Improvement	Improvement in Population
IPSS score	79.83%	100%
Prostate volume	29.46%	94%
PSA levels	56%	76%

Salient Features

- Prosman is a novel, proprietary and patent protected active ingredient
- Prosman comprises of beta-sitosterol, which is known for its potential role in prostate health due to its anti-inflammatory and antioxidant properties
- Manufactured in NSF-GMP, WHO-GMP, ISO 9001:2015, ISO 22000:2018, FSSC 22000, KOSHER, HALAL and ZED(GOLD) certified facility
- AMES bacterial reverse mutation assay conducted under GLP confirms its non-mutagenic potential
- TSE/BSE free
- GMO free
- Backed with acute oral toxicity and efficacy studies conducted in compliance with OECD Principles of Good Laboratory Practices at premium institutes

For any enquiries, please write us at:

Email: corporate@chereso.net

For USA – Email: kelly@cepham.com

www.chereso.net

Disclaimer - The information provided is for healthcare professionals only & is not for individual use. The statements made above have not been evaluated by FDA to diagnose, treat, cure or prevent diseases.